ASHLAND CIVIC LEAGUE.

Holds First of Meetings Series for the Public Welfare.

ASHLAND, VA., September 18.—The Civic Improvement League of Ashland held the first of its annual series of meetings yesterday afternoon in the high-school building.

Mrs. N. L. Lancaster was unanimously elected president for the ensuing year, with J. Miller Leake as first vice-president, and Mrs. R. B. Smith as second vice-president.

Mrs. J. G. Hughes, who has been the league's efficient secretary and treasurer since its organization, was unanimously re-elected to this important office.

The league has been greatly interested in the welfare of the Ashland high school, which began its session Thursday with an unusually large attendance and increased educational facilities.

The league has already done good work for the school and this session it is planned to give the school sanitary drinking water, to beautify the school-rooms with good engravings from masterpieces of famous artists and to provide the school with a library.

Rosewell Page, Hanover representative in the legislature, has offered the league an amount of money, which will entitle the school to the State appropriation for the library.

The Ashland people are taking great pride in the school and its work, and it is the purpose of the league to enlist the interest of every woman in the school and citizen of Ashland in earnest and co-operated work for its well-being.

A campaign for membership will be begun soon.

OLD WILLIAM AND MARY.

Historic College at Williamsburg Starting on Its 217th Session.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., September 18.—The College of William and Mary opened its two hundred and seventeenth session yesterday with bright prospects for a successful session. The attendance is unusually large and the personal of the student body is good. The faculty is very much pleased with the new students.

The formal opening of the college will take place September 24. There will be three addresses by members of the faculty—the first by President Tyler, representing the college at large; the second by Professor Ritchie, representing the committee on student supervision; the third by Professor Keeble, representing the committee on student activities.

In connection with the formal opening "college hour" will be held. There the college activities will be discussed among the faculty and students.

CHESTER SCHOOL TERM.

High Agricultural Institution to Open for Nine Months' Work.

CHESTER, VA., September 18.—

Chester high-agricultural school will begin its nine months' term Monday. Professor P. M. Tyler will be in charge of the high school department, while Professor Stiles, of Blacksburg, will handle the agricultural end of the work. They will be assisted by a corps of four or five female teachers.

The school has grown to such an extent that an additional building of four rooms had to be constructed, and in this building Miss Lou Snead will teach music.

Floyd Clark left here a few days ago for Atlanta, where he will teach school the coming session.

The Rev. Mr. Daniel, of South Chesterfield circuit, has been assisting the pastor, the Rev. J. T. Sewell, in a series of meetings in the Methodist church at this place this week.

EASTERN SHORE ELOPEMENT.

Bride at Home and Father Awails the Bridegroom.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ARDEN, VA., September 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood Souders, of this place, received the following telegram last evening:

"Am married; will be home in morning."

It was the first intimation they received that their daughter, Mamie Souders, aged fifteen years, had been married to William C. Scanlon, aged twenty-five years, a story verified by the young woman herself upon her arrival home this morning. The knot was tied in Wilmington, Del., the agent of the bride-elect having been given as eighteen, the legal age in Delaware.

The parents supposed that their daughter, after returning from school, had spent the night with her sisters, as she often did.

The young bride is locked in her room, while the father is awaiting an interview with the bridegroom.

SAIORS RAID "WHITE CITY."

Norfolk Colored Resort Suffers at Hands of Riotous Tars.

NORFOLK, VA., September 18.—

Considerable excitement was caused at the "White City," a colored resort at Pine Beach, to-day, by an attack upon the restaurant there by a large party of sailors on shore liberty from the fleet in Hampton Roads. The place was stormed and practically wrecked, beer bottles and other things having been thrown through the windows and much crockery and glassware smashed. The cause of the attack by the sailors is not given.

Many people visited the scene of wreckage after the sailors had finished and taken their departure. The affair was reported to the naval authorities and an investigation may follow if the identity of the participants can be established.

IN BOYDTON SCHOOLS.

Teachers Appointed to Serve for the En ensuing Year.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BOYDTON, VA., September 18.—The Boydton District School Board held a meeting for the purpose of electing contracts with the teachers of the district. The following white teachers have been appointed: For Boydton High School—E. C. Wade, principal; Miss Hattie B. Homes, first assistant; Miss Ruth Spain, second assistant; and Miss Ethel Williams, third assistant. Antlers, Miss Bessie Williams; North Bend, Mrs. Carrie G. Buggy, principal; and Miss Bessie Cunningham, assistant; Fields, Miss Nettie Burton; Forty, Mrs. Lucy P. Burton; Baskerville, Miss Carrie P. Gill; Ralston, Miss Maude Gee.

CHESTER AGRICULTURAL.

High School and Farm Being Prepared for the Coming Term.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHESTER, VA., September 18.—The Chester Agricultural High School will open here on Monday. Professor P. M. Tyler, principal, and Professor J. C. Stiles, agricultural and scientist, have been here during this week preparing for the opening of the school and farm.

The School Board, preferring to wait until a larger fund is accumulated for more extensive buildings than it is able to provide for at present, has rented the buildings of the former Chester Female Institute, and has been busy fitting them up for the opening of the session.

Injured Coupling Cars.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

While in the act of coupling cars in the Southern yards here, D. F. Stone was caught in the coupling and his foot and ankle terribly crushed. It is thought amputation will be necessary.

The New Season Hovers Near---Summer Wears Away and Autumn Styles Are Shown To-morrow

Many New and Charming Style Changes Mark the Preliminary Showing of Women's Wear

For our preliminary showing to-morrow of women's wear, including Tailored Suits, Tailored Waists and Skirts, we want to say just a word regarding approaching fall styles.

The Moyer Age, or Moyenne Age, Dagobert or Merovingian effects strike the new style note. This style will dominate. Of course there will be variations, that is taken for granted, but you are assured absolute style correctness in Miller & Rhoads garments.

Daily we are receiving new Fall Styles. Our buyers are back from the style centres, and wearthings to delight the heart of every woman are being constantly unpacked. The styles are in direct contrast to last season. This makes it all the more interesting.

Please note that this is only an early advance showing for autumn's approach. We could go on and tell you about the long coat effects, but you should see for yourself. The leadership of this store in Woman's Wear is firmly fixed; our name is a guarantee that you will find the quality unsurpassed, the workmanship the best and prices unequalled where quality counts.

To-Morrow Strictly Tailored Suits at $15 to $35

New Waists for Fall

In Linen, Linene and Madras

Every woman will be interested in the new fall Waists in linen, linene and madras. Dainty and cleverly styled are these tailored Waists.

You will find the display most interesting in every way. They are most attractive. To-morrow these Waists upwards $1.00

Separate Skirts for Fall

Early Showing

The separate Skirt is indispensable. This season it will be more popular than ever. Never so much care and time has been expended in designing and making.

Our display is arriving daily, and complete it will be in every detail. The materials shown now include Panama, Voile, Broadcloth and Mannish Worsted.

Our range of sizes fit any waist and any length. Monday should find you here. Prices

$5.00 to $20.00

First View of the New Modes in Dress Goods, Silks, Trimmings and Accessories

Like a butterfly emerging from its sleep, the dress fabric section will to-morrow cast aside the gauze-like tissues of summer and step radiantly forth gowned in the fall colorings of the autumnal season.

Lustrous Silks, bewitchingly pretty fabrics, elegant trimmings and accessories of every description. Materials most adaptable for being fashioned into garments of the present vogue, with their soft flowing lines and wealth of embellishment.

A beautiful showing awaits you; every table, every bit of trimming, every accessory is an authentic delineation of the fall fashions. There's not a woman interested in the trend of style who will not be here to-morrow.
